

A person's silhouette is visible in the foreground on the left, looking out over a misty, autumnal forest landscape. The trees are covered in vibrant autumn foliage, and a layer of fog or mist hangs in the air, creating a serene and atmospheric scene. The background shows a forested hillside under a soft, hazy sky.

It began as a one song idea, which turned into three, which turned into an album. It's been an incredible journey with so much learned along the way. The most important lesson is that there is no such thing as a "solo" project. It is always about the people you surround yourself with, and I have been blessed to be surrounded by an amazing group of friends and family. Thank you all for the advice, encouragement, musicianship and patience.
